

CityVoices

THE NEWSPAPER FOR PEERS & THE PEER WORKFORCE

WE PUBLISH QUARTERLY WITH CONTENT OF INTEREST TO BOTH PEER WORKERS AND THE PEERS THAT THEY SERVE IN BEHAVIORAL HEALTHCARE

Order a yearly 4-issue subscription of
25 copies = $175.00

If you order 50 or more copies,
you save 15%!

50 copies = $300.00
100 copies = $600.00
150 copies = $900.00
200 copies = $1,200.00

We can print as many copies
as you need for your staff and clients

We ship via UPS and USPS
at no extra charge!

SEE FULL COLOR ARTS PHOTO SPREAD PAGES 8 & 9!

CityVoices

A Peer Journal for Mental Health

Summer 2019
Vol. XXII No. 2

"The Way Home in August" Painting by artist Miguel Colon

What's Inside...

- Harvey's organization is fighting to reduce the negative impact of prison life on prisoners. p.3
- Chrysalis says better to risk failure than be paralyzed by fear. p.3
- Randy got back to life after incarceration and became a mentor to others. p.5
- Kurt reviews a book written by someone with schizophrenia. p.5
- Lisa pays homage to the love of her life after losing him tragically. p.6
- Laura Anne had a blast at an annual art show she wants to tell you about. p.7
- Five new artists with a whole lot of soul showcase some of their art. pp.8-9
- Nurses highlights the difference between peer specialists and social workers in their claims. p.10
- Test lobbied state legislators for better housing rights for his peers. p.10
- MVW tells you how to start building a new family of friends. p.11
- Bryson survives a serious assault and writes the poem shortly thereafter. p.11
- Bruce takes to the stage in Manhattan after court. p.12
- Crig's dog just wanted to be left alone and had every right to be mean. p.13

WRITE FOR OR SUBSCRIBE TO CITY VOICES!

For individual or bulk subscription rates and submission guidelines, contact Dan Frey via CityVoices1995@gmail.com

CityVoices - Vol. XXII No. 2 - Summer 2019

Order now by emailing DanFrey, Editor-in-Chief CityVoices1995@gmail.com